

Be Young and Proud

BYP is a safe space for LGBTQI young people and friends aged 14-25 years to meet and talk, find out what's on, and make friends.

GROUNDWORKS
YOUTH CENTRE

BYP is a safe place for young people to be themselves and socialise with good company and like-minded people in a cool atmosphere.

BYP members have the opportunity to:

- Get involved in community events
- Create positive awareness and acceptance of the LGBTQI communities

Members of BYP make meaningful connections by having real conversations about:

- Safe Sex and sexual health
- Coming out (or not)
- Relationships, friendships and family
- Dealing with homophobia and transphobia

When: First Tuesday of the month 4:30-6:30pm

Who: LGBTQI and questioning young people

Where: Groundworks Youth Centre,
(near the centre of Coffs Harbour
in the Community Village in Earl Street)

If you want to meet some new people and share ideas, you are always welcome at BYP.

If you know someone else who might be interested let them know too.

To find out more about BYP and other activities run at the Groundworks Youth Centre email us: Groundworks@midcc.org.au or phone: (02) 5632 4020.
